Ben Shaw

Call: 2002

Ben has a busy practice which is divided equally between litigation and transactional work covering company law, corporate insolvency and restructuring and general commercial litigation and arbitration.

Ben's transactional work has included both creditor and member schemes of arrangement under Part 26 of the Companies Act 2006, numerous reductions of capital and other reserves for listed public companies and cross-border mergers under the Companies (Cross-Border Mergers) Regulations 2007. Ben also has experience of advising on a wide range of company and corporate governance issues.

In recent years, Ben's litigation practice has included instructions in some of the most significant large-scale insolvencies, including Lehman, MF Global and Kaupthing. In 2013, Ben acted for the respondent companies in Prest v Petrodel, the landmark decision on piercing the corporate veil.

Arbitration

April 2013: Instructed on behalf of a Jersey company in a large-scale arbitration involving allegations of unfair prejudice under Article 141 of the Companies (Jersey) Law 1991. The arbitration involved the application of principles discussed by the Court of Appeal in Fulham Football Club (1987) Ltd v Richards [2012] Ch 33.

Company Litigation

Dennis v TAG Group Ltd [2017] EWHC 919

Ben was instructed to act for Ron Dennis in unfair prejudice proceedings relating to the conduct of the affairs of the McLaren Technology Group Ltd (led by David Chivers QC). This application was concerned with the question of whether the respondents had submitted to the jurisdiction of the English court.

Wann v Birkinshaw [2017] EWCA Civ 84

Ben was instructed as sole Counsel on a successful appeal in the Court of Appeal relating to the valuation of the petitioner's shares for the purposes of a buy-out order in unfair prejudice proceedings.

Interactive Technology Corporation Ltd v Ferster [2016] EWHC 2896

Four-week trial of (i) claims by a company against a director (J) involving allegations of diversion of an online gaming business and payments of excessive remuneration and expenses and (ii) an unfair prejudice petition presented by J against his co-directors (led by Andrew Thompson QC).

Interactive Technology Corporation Ltd v Ferster [2016] EWCA Civ 614

Acted for appellant on an appeal against the grant of a freezing injunction and a search and seizure order (led by Andrew Thompson QC).

Interactive Technology Corporation Ltd v Ferster [2015] EWHC 3895

Acted for applicant on successful application to admit evidence of blackmail threat, relying on exception to without prejudice privilege (led by Andrew Thompson QC).

Interactive Technology Corporation Ltd v Ferster [2015] EWHC 393

Acted for Respondents on applications for freezing injunction and search and seizure order in a dispute concerning allegations that business had been diverted from the Claimant company.

Petrodel Resources Ltd v Prest [2013] 2 WLR 557

Appeared with family Silk, Tim Amos QC, in the Court of Appeal and Supreme Court. This “landmark” case concerned the ability of the family courts to pierce the corporate veil of a company controlled by a party to a marriage for the purposes of satisfying an ancillary relief award.

Kleanthous v Paphitis [2011] EWHC 2287

Appeared on behalf of three respondents at the hearing of an application brought by a minority shareholder in the Ryman Group to continue derivative proceedings against Theo Paphitis and others.

Royal Bank of Scotland plc v Hicks [2010] EWHC 2568

Appeared on behalf of RBS on successful applications for injunctive relief against the former owners of Liverpool Football Club. As a result of these injunctions, the directors of the Club's holding companies were able to sell the Club to the owners of the Boston Red Sox.

AMG Global Nominees (Private) Ltd v Africa Resources Ltd [2009] 1 BCLC 281 (CA); [2008] 1 BCLC 447 (Ch D)

Acted for the claimant/Part 20 defendant in a dispute concerning title to bearer share warrants. The legal issues included the question of whether an English parent company may give unlawful financial assistance by allowing its foreign subsidiary to give assistance.

Interactive Technology Corporation Ltd v Ferster [2015] EWHC 393

Acted for Respondents on applications for freezing injunction and search and seizure order in a dispute concerning allegations that business had been diverted from the Claimant company.

Re Quiet Moments Ltd [2013] EWHC 3806; [2014] EWCA Civ 1536

Ben acted for the petitioner on an application to wind up a company on the just and equitable ground and claims by the petitioner to enforce compulsory transfer provisions contained in a shareholders' agreement. The application was dismissed and a costs' order made against the petitioner. Ben acted for the petitioner on a successful appeal to the Court of Appeal against the Judge's refusal to order co-applicants to contribute to costs payable by the petitioner.

Estafnous v London & Leeds Business Centres Ltd [2009] EWHC 1308; [2011] EWCA Civ 1157

Acted for the defendant, both at the first instance and in Court of Appeal, in the successful defence of a claim brought by an estate agent for a commission payment of £2 million. The issue in this case was whether an agreement which provided for the payment of commission on a sale of real property included an obligation to pay commission on a sale of shares in the company which owned the property.

Capcon Holdings plc v Edwards & Ors [2007] EWHC 2662

Acted for the claimants in a contractual dispute concerning a share sale agreement. The case gave rise to complex issues concerning the scope of defences to a claim for rescission.
